MEDICINAL. WHY?

Why do women continue to endure suffering caused by womanly diseases? There are many answers to that question. Sometimes because they have exhausted the skill of local physicians and remain un-aided. At other times it is because they shrink from submitting to obnoxious examinations which local physicians deem necessary. And to sum it all up, they endure suffering because they do not know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, drives disagreeable drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. "I enjoy good health; thanks to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mrs. J. J. Schreyer, of Pontiac, Livingston Co., Ill. "I was taken sick and the doctors here called it 'drops.' I lay for four weeks in bed, then when I got up I found I had 'displacement.' Had much pain in my back and limbs could not stand any length of time. I knew that our home doctor would insist the first thing on an examination, and that I would not submit to unless I was dangerously sick. My son had your book, 'Common Sense Medical Advice,' and I thought from reading it that Dr. Pierce's medicine would do me more good than all the home doctors—and so it has. I can truly say I was surprised at the benefit I received. I can do all my washing and also tend my flower garden. In fact I am on my feet about all the time. An old friend of mine said to me, 'What is the matter with you? You are getting young again.' I told her I had taken all bottles of Dr. Pierce's medicine, and that if she would do likewise she would feel ten years younger, too."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser paper covers are sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

DEATH OF BISHOP WHITTLE.

Rev. Francis McNeale Whittle, the venerable bishop of the diocese of Virginia, died yesterday afternoon at his home in Richmond. His death, though not sudden, was unexpected. He had been in frail health for several years, and some weeks ago gave up the active work of the bishopric. Some weeks ago, while walking across the floor, the bone in his hip broke and he fell heavily. He soon rallied and his family and friends began to hope he would be spared for some time, but Tuesday afternoon there was a decided change for the worse, and he sank steadily until the end came.

Bishop Whittle was ripe in years and in honors. He would have been seventy-nine years old next month. He is survived by two sons—Messrs. Fortesque, of Petersburg, and Francis M., jr., of Atlanta, and one daughter, Mrs. Jones, of Winchester.

Mrs. Whittle, who was a Miss Fairfax, of Virginia, died some years ago. Two other children, his oldest daughter, who was the first wife of Dr. John N. Upshur, and a son, Lewis, are also dead, the latter having died while a cadet at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Right Rev. Francis McNeale Whittle was one of the best-known men in the Protestant Episcopal Church. He was born in Mecklenburg county, this State, July 7, 1823. His early schooling was for the greater part procured at his home, but later he entered the Episcopal High School at Alexandria, and after completing his course of study there taught for some time. Later he entered the Theological School at Alexandria from which he was graduated in 1847. On July 16, 1847, he was ordained a deacon, and on the 8th day of October, 1848, was ordained a priest. His first rectory was of Kanawha parish, Kanawha county, now West Virginia, but then of Virginia. He remained as rector of Kanawha parish for two years when he was forced to retire from his duties owing to his ill health. In 1852 he became rector of St. James, Northham parish, Goodland county, and remained in charge of the work there until 1854, when he became rector of Grace church, at Berryville. While in charge of the work there he devoted much of his time to mission work in the mountain region of that section, and as a monument to his able and efficient work there a chapel stands in the mountain fastnesses of Clarke county. He afterward took up his residence in Louisville, Ky., and remained there until 1868, when he was elected on the ninth ballot by the council of Virginia as assistant to the late Right Rev. John Johns, then bishop of the diocese of Virginia. He was consecrated as assistant bishop of Virginia in St. Paul's Church, Alexandria, April 30, 1868, and upon the death of Bishop Johns, April 4, 1870, became bishop of the diocese of Virginia. As assistant bishop of Virginia, Bishop Whittle continued to reside in Alexandria, until 1871 when he moved to Richmond, where he had since resided.

Bishop Whittle received his degree of doctor of divinity from the Theological Seminary of Ohio in 1867, and the degree of doctor of laws was conferred upon him by William and Mary College in 1873.

Bishop Whittle was a pronounced low churchman in the Protestant Episcopal Church of Virginia, which was held in Fredericksburg in 1878. In his letter, Bishop Whittle forbade the use of flowers in the decorations of the Episcopal churches of his diocese at Easter. This practice was just then becoming general among the churches, but Bishop Whittle held that the custom was not authorized by the Scriptures, and was in violation of them. The letter caused a great sensation in the diocese, and it was charged that in issuing the episcopal letter, Bishop Whittle had exceeded his authority.

Rev. Dr. Armstrong, who was then rector of Monumental Church, Richmond, and Gen. Bradley T. Johnson, delegate from Grace Church, Richmond, were the leaders in the opposition. The debates were spirited and the fight bitter. Dr. Armstrong and his adherents, however, lost their fight. Bishop Whittle was sustained by the convention by an overwhelming majority.

Bishop Whittle's administration was attended with most gratifying results.

MEDICINAL. KODOL.

Digests what you Eat

Dyspepsia Cure

You need all kinds of food to maintain the body. Curtail this variety and some organ is underfed. It is for this reason that a diet is injurious. If you cannot digest good food your stomach is out of order and needs rest. You cannot go without food for that would mean starvation. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat without the stomach's aid. Take it and you can rest your stomach without interrupting digestion. It is nature's own remedy. Never fails. Anderson Riggs, Sunny Lane, Tex., says: "I was troubled with indigestion ten years and tried many things and spent much money until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I am now feeling better than in five years and more like a boy than in twenty."

Cures All Stomach Troubles.

Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The St. bottle contains 2 1/2 times the 50c. size. Sore, burns, wounds, skin diseases, quickly cured by DEWITT'S.

Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Today five bishops are doing the work of the three dioceses which have grown out of the one—the Diocese of Virginia—over which Bishop Whittle assumed charge on the death of his predecessor, Bishop John Johns.

Bishop Whittle was a profound man. His every act commanded respect and admiration. Though one might differ with him radically as to views on certain questions, no one ever came in close personal relations with him who did not become a staunch friend. His unyielding disposition and his decided stands, while winning him many friends, yet could not fail in making him many strong opponents, but of all he commanded respect.

The last sermon Bishop Whittle preached was in the Broad street Methodist Church, Richmond, during the absence of Rev. Mr. Beauchamp, the pastor at conference. The last time Bishop Whittle officiated in any Episcopal Church was in the First Church, Richmond, in administering communion.

The funeral will be preached by Rev. William Meade Clark Friday morning at 10 o'clock in St. James Episcopal Church in Richmond. The interment will be in Hollywood. The pall-bearers will be the Episcopal clergy of Richmond and vicinity.

Of what does a bad taste in your mouth remind you? It indicates that your stomach is in bad condition and will remind you that there is nothing so good for such a disorder as Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets after having once used them. They cleanse and invigorate the stomach and regulate the bowels. For sale at 25 cents per box by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Wants Others to Know.

"I have used DeWitt's Early Risers for constipation and torpid liver and they are all right. I am glad to endorse them for I think when we find a good thing we ought to let others know it," writes Alfred Heinze, Quincy, Ill. They never gripe or distress. Sure, safe pills. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.
